Federal Election Commission
Office of General Counsel
Attn: Mark A. Goodin

Washington, DC 20463

Dear Mr. Goodin:

In 1999, Hastert for Congress received a total of $1,000 each from two employees of AMEC Construction Management, Inc. ("AMEC"). At the time of receipt and deposit, Hastert for Congress had no reason to believe these contributions were illegal or in any way improper. However, on or about October 24, 2005, I learned for the first time that AMEC had entered into a Conciliation Agreement with the Federal Election Commission under MUR Number 5628 through which AMEC agreed that it had reimbursed certain individuals for making political contributions to federal candidates; including Hastert for Congress. Neither Hastert for Congress nor its Treasurer, Dallas Ingemunson, were named as respondents to MUR 5628 and had no knowledge that AMEC reimbursed the personal contributions of its employees. As this was an internal corporate action, there is no way Hastert for Congress, Mr. Ingemunson or I could have known about such reimbursements at the time. But, based on the agreed facts in the MUR 5628 Conciliation Agreement, we have now discovered that these contributions should not have been accepted and deposited. We have further learned through the Conciliation Agreement that AMEC has waived its right to a refund of all political contributions from the recipient committees.

Accordingly, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. section 103.3(b) and FEC Advisory Opinion 1996-5, Hastert for Congress hereby tenders the amounts identified in the Conciliation Agreement and in the FEC correspondence of October 20, 2005 to the U.S. Treasury. Enclosed please find check #13274 in the amount of $2000.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Lisa Post
